MEMORANDUM FOR LTG Nadja Y. West, US Army Surgeon General, 7700 Arlington Boulevard, Falls Church, VA 22042-5140

SUBJECT: Status and Alignment of the Joint Trauma System

1. Reference DoDI 6040.47, Joint Trauma System (JTS), 28 Sep 16.
2. DoDI 6040.47 establishes the Secretary of the Army as the Military Health System Lead Agent for trauma care and recognizes the JTS as a DoD Center of Excellence. The responsibility to oversee the functions and activities necessary for the operation of the JTS is executed through The Surgeon General of the Army and can be further delegated to the Commander, US Army Medical Research and Materiel Command (USAMRMC). Until such time as delegation is official, the JTS is now reporting to the Commander, USAMRMC, unless directed otherwise.
3. The USAISR will continue to provide logistical, administrative, personnel and infrastructure (space and equipment) support to the JTS at the current level of effort and cost (with no increases) pending further determination.
4. The Director, JTS reports as outlined in DoDI 6040.47. CAPT Zsolt Stockinger, MC, USN, is confirmed as the current JTS Director.
5. The Director, JTS is the signature authority for JTS matters previously requiring signature by the USAISR Commander, for the following matters:
  - a. Memoranda of agreement or understanding with external organizations for data-sharing, data release, and collaborations.
  - b. Travel requests and funding for JTS personnel.
  - c. Approval for JTS presentations and publications.
  - d. Expenditure of JTS funds, including personnel actions.
